"Three things in human life are important: The first is to be kind. The second is to be kind, and the third is to be kind." – Henry James

This past month I had the opportunity to attend the annual Gathering of the Society of Ordained Scientists. This Society is a group of men and women who have a foot in each discipline. To be a member, a person must have a degree in science and be ordained in the Anglican Communion. To be an associate (like me) a person needs to be either a scientist or a member of the clergy, and have a strong interest in the other discipline. The topics this year looked quite controversial when I first saw them, and I admit there was a little apprehension on my part that the three day retreat would be contentious at best. I was pleased however when it turned out to be three days of learning and sharing with some of the most brilliant minds in the cross section of faith and science.

As I have been saying, this example of how to have deep, meaningful conversations has impacted my interest in how to invite us all into discussions that allow space for all opinions and perspectives. The longstanding view in the Episcopal Church is that we can agree to disagree, discuss and debate over any subject, but in the end we are all able to gather around the common table to pray, love and worship together. In a church that stayed together through unrest and civil upheaval, including a war that tore our nation apart, we should be able to embrace this idea and show the world how to engage in these conversations.

This summer, I invite you to come engage in ways that we as a congregation can get to know each other better and embrace the ability to gather as one. Some of the situations we are presenting:

"Becoming Barnabas" – this style of conversation will be presented on three consecutive Sundays in July. By learning to interact around six basic questions, we can learn to listen to each other and join one another on the spiritual journey we are on as individuals and as a community.

"Let's Talk" – an open forum will be scheduled in August to hear more about the topics I heard at the SoOS gathering.

"Open Up the Book of Common Prayer" – an ongoing series, starting in September, that will crack open the book that is at the heart of who we are as Episcopalians. We'll walk together through the history of the BCP and how it shapes us as Christians.

The only "requirements" of any of these opportunities is a willingness to listen and share. By allowing space in our church community to develop friendships and connections, we can show others why being a disciple of Jesus matters. Let's see how our common life together can grow and thrive.

St. David's Outreach Sunday

JULY OUTREACH

Outreach Sunday— July 9

The Fund for the Relief of Widows, Widowers and Orphans of Clergy in the Diocese of New Jersey

The Outreach funds collected for JULY will be donated to the Episcopal Diocese of NJ Fund for the Relief of Widows, Widowers and Children of Clergy.

The program has existed since 1807 and provides financial assistance to the widows, widowers, domestic partners and children upon the death of any member of the clergy who was canonically residing in the Diocese.

The yearly annuity benefit amount depends on the interest income of the Fund. Since interest rates are currently very low, the fund's principle must be increased to help compensate for the low interest earnings. Every parish in the Diocese is required to make this contribution in an amount based on the generosity of each congregation.
