Opening Hymn

1982 Hymnal 61

Sleeper's Wake

- 1 "Sleepers, wake!,"
A voice astounds us,
the shout of rampart guards surrounds us;
"Awake, Jerusalem, arise!"
Midnight's peace their cry has broken, their urgent summons clearly spoken:
"The time has come, O maidens wise!
Rise up, and give us light; the Bridegroom is in sight.
Alleluia!
Your lamps prepare and hasten there,
that you the wedding feast may share"
- 3 Lamb of God, the heavens adore you, let saints and angels sing before you as harps and cymbals swell the sound.
Twelve great pearls, the city's portals:
through them we stream to join the immortals as we with joy your throne surround.
No eye has known the sight,
no ear heard such delight:
Alleluia!
Therefore we sing to greet our King;
Forever let our praises ring.

Lighting of the Candles of the Advent Wreath

Clissold Family

Reader 1: According to tradition, each candle has a special meaning. The first one, usually purple or blue, is called the candle of hope. People in the Old Testament knew that God had promised to send a Savior. And we're filled with hope because we know that Jesus came to Earth on the first Christmas so he could tell people about God and die for our sins. As we get ready to light the first candle on your Advent wreath, let us listen to a reading from Romans.

Reader 2 Paul wrote, “ I pray that God, the source of hope, will fill you completely with joy and peace because you trust in him. Then you will overflow with confident hope through the power of the Holy Spirit. (Romans 15:13).

The first purple or a blue candle is lit and all say,

All: One candle, burning bright,
Chasing away the darkness from light.
One candle, glowing light,
The blessing of God, giving new sight.

Reader 3: Let us pray. Dear God, we pray for the hope that is in Christ to come into our lives in a new way. May we become hope that is alive in our world. Amen.

O come, O come, Emanuel (verse 1)

O come, O come, Emmanuel,
And ransom captive Israel,
That mourns in lonely exile here,
Until the Son of God appear.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel Shall come to thee, O Israel.

Priest: Come once more, with eager longing to receive the promises of God.
(as we form the sign of the Cross)

All: Out of the desert places of our lives we gather with joy and gladness.

Priest: Happy are those who help is the God of Jacob, whose hope is in the Lord their God.

All: Our God has promised that lonely places and deserts will be glad and blossom as the rose.

Priest: Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

Priest: Lord, have mercy.

People: Christ, have mercy.

Priest: Lord, have mercy.

Collect of the Day

Priest The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Priest Let us pray.

Priest In time of anxiety, illness suffering and death, your people turn to you for hope and comfort. Almighty God, give us grace to cast away the works of darkness, and put on the armor of light, now in the time of this mortal life in which your Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility; that in the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious majesty to judge both the living and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal; through him who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

People: Amen.

The First Lesson

Isaiah 64:1-9

Tricia Metzger

O that you would tear open the heavens and come down, so that the mountains would quake at your presence—as when fire kindles brushwood and the fire causes water to boil—to make your name known to your adversaries, so that the nations might tremble at your presence! When you did awesome deeds that we did not expect, you came down, the mountains quaked at your presence. From ages past no one has heard, no ear has perceived, no eye has seen any God besides you, who works for those who wait for him. You meet those who gladly do right, those who remember you in your ways. But you were angry, and we sinned; because you hid yourself we transgressed. We have all become like one who is unclean, and all our righteous deeds are like a filthy cloth. We all fade like a leaf, and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away. There is no one who calls on your name, or attempts to take hold of you; for you have hidden your face from us, and have delivered us into the hand of our iniquity. Yet, O Lord, you are our Father; we are the clay, and you are our potter; we are all the work of your hand. Do not be exceedingly angry, O Lord, and do not remember iniquity forever. Now consider, we are all your people.

Psalm 80:1-7,16-18

Led by Tricia Metzger

Qui regis Israel

- 1 Hear, O Shepherd of Israel, leading Joseph like a flock; *
 shine forth, you that are enthroned upon the cherubim.
- 2 In the presence of Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh,  stir up your strength and come to help us.
- 3 Restore us, O God of hosts; *
 show the light of your countenance, and we shall be saved.
- 4 O Lord God of hosts, ***
 how long will you be angered despite the prayers of your people?
- 5 You have fed them with the bread of tears; *
 you have given them bowls of tears to drink.
- 6 You have made us the derision of our neighbors, ***
 and our enemies laugh us to scorn.
- 7 Restore us, O God of hosts; *
 show the light of your countenance, and we shall be saved.
- 16 Let your hand be upon the man of your right hand, ***
 the son of man you have made so strong for yourself.
- 17 And so will we never turn away from you; *
 give us life, that we may call upon your Name.
- 18 Restore us, O Lord God of hosts; ***
 show the light of your countenance, and we shall be saved.

1 Corinthians 1:3-9

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that has been given you in Christ Jesus, for in every way you have been enriched in him, in speech and knowledge of every kind just as the testimony of Christ has been strengthened among you—so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ. He will also strengthen you to the end, so that you may be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful; by him you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Holy GospelMark 13:24-37

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, “In those days, after that suffering, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will be falling from heaven, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. Then they will see ‘the Son of Man coming in clouds’ with great power and glory. Then he will send out the angels, and gather his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of heaven. From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near. So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that he is near, at the very gates. Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place.

Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. But about that day or hour no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. Beware, keep alert; for you do not know when the time will come. It is like a man going on a journey, when he leaves home and puts his slaves in charge, each with his work, and commands the doorkeeper to be on the watch. Therefore, keep awake—for you do not know when the master of the house will come, in the evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or at dawn, or else he may find you asleep when he comes suddenly. And what I say to you I say to all: Keep awake.”

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.

Sermon

Father Don

The Nicene Creed

All: We believe in one God,
 the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
 of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
 the only Son of God,
 eternally begotten of the Father,
 God from God, Light from Light,
 true God from true God,
 begotten, not made,
 of one Being with the Father.
 Through him all things were made.
 For us and for our salvation
 he came down from heaven:
 by the power of the Holy Spirit
 he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
 and was made man.
 For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
 he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Led by Deacon Hank

Deacon: God of power and might, tear open the heavens and come quickly to this weary world. Hear our prayers for everyone in need.

A brief silence.

Deacon: Lord of the church, ignite your people with the passion of your love. By the fire of your Holy Spirit, unify us across ministries, congregations, and denominations, and refine us to participate in your activity throughout the world. We pray especially the Archbishop of Canterbury Justin, our Presiding Bishop Michael, our Bishop William, our Priest Don, our Deacon Hank, Brother John, Pastoral Associate Kate, Deacon Postulant Carol and Postulant Allie. We pray to the Lord.

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Deacon: We pray for the ministry we share in Christ's name. Open our hearts to your call for justice, peace, and healing. Attune us to the needs of the world as you draw near. We pray to the Lord.

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Deacon: We pray for this planet in need of restoration: for devastated habitats, polluted waters, thawing ice, blazing fires, swelling floods, and long-lasting droughts. Renew the face of the earth and our relationship to it. We pray to the Lord.

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Deacon: We pray for all people who care for others in our community and around the world. Fill them with compassion and the power to respond with justice for those who are oppressed, with welcome for those who are excluded, and with relief for those who suffer. We pray to the Lord.

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Deacon: We pray for people who are in crisis as the seasons change: for those without homes facing severe weather, for those who are unemployed or underemployed, and for those in poverty or facing food insecurity. Relieve their burdens, sustain their bodies, and ease their minds. We pray to the Lord.

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Deacon: We pray for the people in our families and congregation who live with depression, anxiety, chronic pain, addiction, and other invisible illnesses especially those on our parish prayer list. Ease their suffering and support them when they struggle.

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Deacon: We especially pray today in remembrance and thanksgiving for the birthdays of Anne Benedict, Larry Kraft, Harrison Katona, Gary Long, Kristen Lombardo, Grace Lombardo, Holly Hibbard, Larry Rak, AJ Polanceo, Madeleine Peeters, and Susan Lausten. We pray to the Lord.

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Deacon: We give thanks for the lives and witness of those who died while waiting for justice, peace, or healing, those whose names we know and those whose names are known only to you especially those taken by the coronavirus. Sustain all who still yearn for the completion of your redeeming work. We pray to the Lord.

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Deacon: Draw near to us, O God, and receive our prayers for the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

Confession of Sin

All: Holy and loving God, we have dwelt in darkness and preferred it to the light;
we have been proud of our accomplishments and despaired over our shortcomings.
Smooth down the mountains of our pride, and lift up the valleys of our doubts.
Open a path in the wilderness of our lives that we might find our way to you again.
Refine us and prepare us once again for life in your kingdom.
Hear our prayer, O Lord. Amen.

Breathe your grace into our lives.
Forgive our wandering ways, and guide us along your paths of peace.
When we lose our way, and forget the reason and purpose of this season,
carry us back to you.
Lead us up to that high mountain of faith and hope, that we might truly proclaim:
"Here is our God!"

Priest: "Comfort, O comfort my people," says our God. You have served your term. Your penalty is paid. In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Amen.

The Peace

Priest: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

The Holy Communion

Priest: Gracious and generous Creator, your people come before you this day with the offering of their whole selves, of all that they are, and all that they have. The gifts they have made to support the ministry and mission of St. David's Church are a symbol of their very lives and their commitment to invest a portion of themselves in your on-going work in the world. May those who make this sacrifice of praise and gratitude be so filled with your own generous spirit, that it pours out of each and every one into the world around them. Hear these prayers and accept our humble gifts. Bless them. Make them abound that all people through our work and sacrifice in your name, may know and feel your abundant blessings. All this we ask of you, our Creator, Redeemer and Sanctifier. Amen.

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Priest: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Priest: It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks, holy Father, almighty and eternal God. In this Season of Advent, as we remember the first coming of Jesus, born among us, looking forward once again to Christmas, and as we wait in joyful expectation for the return of Christ our Lord on the last day, we huddle in the safety of our homes, conscious of the dangers of a pandemic that has overtaken the whole world. We live in Advent hope for grace and healing for the world and eagerly await a new proclamation of joy for all people. We join with all the Angels to praise your majesty and worship together with exultation as we acclaim

Priest and People: Holy, holy, holy God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Priest: Holy and gracious Father:
In this time of fear and stress, we turn our hearts to you, looking for your help and consolation.
The colorful leaves of fall once again turn toward winter, yet we still hear the advice of medical experts who tell us to separate ourselves from each other for our own safety, and out of concern for one another.
Today we celebrate your love for all creation, and we remember the many times when our community of faith has gathered to be fed by your word and sacrament.
We remember the many times in ages past when your people were fed through your loving care.
In this Advent of isolation,
we remember the food you provided your People as they journeyed through the wilderness toward the Promised land.
We remember how Jesus fed the multitudes who had come to listen to his preaching in another wilderness place.
And above all,
we remember the evening when Jesus gathered with a small group of his friends, to link his life to the ancient story of liberation celebrated by the Jewish people in the Passover.
Jesus took the simple food and drink before him and created for all time a means by which those who love him may be joined intimately with him.
He created a sacrament for your Church, but in this time of sickness,
when our joyful celebrations are curtailed,
we cannot gather as we would wish.
So we turn to your words, “Whenever you do this,
[whenever you eat and drink,] do it in remembrance of me.”
We have feasted on your word, and now we give thanks that your love reaches to our generation so that having this food before us reminds us of the abundance of your goodness through which we are sustained every day.
With sorrow,
we mourn the loss of receiving your blessed Body and Blood.
With gratitude, we take what you have made available to us as a taste of your abundant grace. We thank you, Lord, our God

All: We thank you, Lord our God.

Priest: As one family we now pray as our Savior Christ has taught us,

All: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Priest: Loving God, bless all those spiritually gathered here today, as we remember the friendship and fellowship of our church.
Thank you for the blessings of our individual and collective God-given gifts.
Place in our hearts the desire to make a difference to our families, to our community, to our country,
and to the many cultures and peoples worldwide.
Give us peace in these times of distraction and uncertainty.
Thank you for food in a world where many know only hunger;
For our faith in a world where many know fear;
For friends in a world where many know only loneliness.
Please bless this food we are about to share,
Bless those through whose work we have it and those who have worked to make today the special occasion that it is.
For all of this we give you thanks.

All: We give you thanks.

Led by Kate O'Connor

In union, O Lord, with your faithful people at every altar of your Church, we desire to offer to you our praise and thanksgiving. We remember your death, Lord Christ; we proclaim your resurrection; we await your coming in glory. Since we cannot receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, we pray that you will come spiritually into our hearts. Cleanse and strengthen us with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let us never be separated from you. May we live in you, and you in us, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

Communion Song

Brian Clissold, Baritone

In the Bleak Midwinter

All eat and drink from the food before us. After all have tasted of the food (the food may be finished after the conclusion of the service) and the music has concluded.

Post Communion Prayer

Priest: Let us pray

All: Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ.
You have fed us with the spiritual food of your Word and you have given us the means to partake of the good things you have given us.
Make us mindful now that you have called us to be your presence in this world, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you and the people you have set before us with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Vestry and Discernment Committee Prayer

All: Lord, we ask you to guide the members of our Vestry and Discernment Committee so that they may hear Your voice leading St. David's Church into the future to which you are calling us.
Give them wisdom and insight into the qualities of Leadership needed to best serve our precious church.
Inspire also the person You intend to be our spiritual leader and pastor. Give us all a sense of happy anticipation as we await the one we know will be the right one according to Your plan for us.
We pray in Jesus' name. Amen.

Final Blessing

Celebrant : Let the Lord steer you in the way of truth.

Be on your guard so that you will not be caught up in the trivialities and anxieties of the world.

Be alert at all times and pray for strength to escape the traps that would keep you from God.

And may God make you increase in love for one another;
May Christ Jesus teach you how to live in God's ways;
and may the Holy Spirit strengthen your hearts in holiness, as you ready yourselves for the coming of the Lord.

May the blessing of God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit ✚ be with you and remain with you always.

Amen.

Hail to the Lord's Anointed

- 1 Hail to the Lord's Anointed, great David's greater Son!
Hail, in the time appointed,
his reign on earth begun!
He comes to break oppression,
to set the captive free;
to take away transgression,
and rule in equity.
- 2 He comes with succor speedy to those who suffer wrong, to help the poor and needy,
and bid the weak be strong;
to give them songs for sighing, their darkness turn to light, whose souls, condemned and dying,
were precious in his sight.
- 5 O'er every foe victorious,
he on his throne shall rest, from age to age more glorious,
all blessing and all blest;
the tide of time shall never his covenant remove;
his Name shall stand for ever,
his changeless Name of Love.

Dismissal

Deacon: Go in peace to love and serve the Lord, and one another.

All: Thanks be to God.

Announcements

Because of the recent rise in the infection rate of Covid-19 in the state of New Jersey, the Bishop has counseled churches of the Diocese to suspend in-person worship. For the time, St. David's will revert to the kind of online Zoom service that we had through the spring and summer. A special Advent service bulletin for our Zoom services will be found on the Events page of the website. You are encouraged to have an Advent Wreath at home, and join as families from the parish lead the candle lighting each week. We have every reason to hope that major shut-down across the state will bring a decrease in the infection rate and allow us to resume in-person worship before Christmas.

When the church is once again open for worship, registration for the in-person service is primarily online, using the link found on the Events page of the parish website. It will cap attendance at 25 households. We will keep three future services up so that you can pre-register. Right now, it seems that the maximum number of registrants is not being met, so if you have already attended a service and you would want to attend the following week, you may do so.

Moving forward, registration for services will remain open and only close once the maximum capacity limitation of 25 is met.

The altar party (priest, deacon, lay reader, music director) must also register (remember to put your title next to your name.)

GIVING TUESDAY

December 1, 2020

Dear Fellow Members of Saint David's,

As many of you are aware, Tuesday December 1st, is Giving Tuesday, a day when the world comes together to give to those in need. This year we respectfully ask that you consider directing your contribution to St. David's Outreach Ministry. With your help we can make a difference in the lives of vulnerable adults and children in our community and the world.

Unfortunately, this year, due to the Corona-19 Pandemic, we were unable to hold our traditional fundraisers. In a typical year, thanks to your generosity, we would have received income from The Women's Tea, our Yard Sale, Annual Golf Outing, and Fantasy Auction. The loss of these events has presented a significant financial obstacle to our Outreach Ministry, at a time when the need for community support is greater than ever.

We ask you to consider contributing what you would have donated for one or more of our events, for example, a $15 donation would represent a Fantasy Auction Ticket, $30 – a Women's Tea Ticket, $75 -- a hole on the Golf Course, or $125 -- for a Foursome. All donations are gratefully accepted -- no amount is too small. And, if you can encourage your family and friends to join in this effort, together we can create an even greater impact. Now more than ever we are called upon to make a difference in people's lives. Let's let them feel the real spirit of Saint David's.

For those who would like to donate, you can use the donate link on our website: www.stdavidscranbury.com/donate-pledge [stdavidscranbury.com]. On the donate page you will see a button for Giving Tuesday – click on that and you can make a donation using PayPal, or a debit or credit card.

Saint David's members have always given from their hearts, and we are truly blessed to have such a generous, caring, and compassionate congregation. Thank you for your continued faith and support of this important ministry.

Sincerely,

The Fundraising Ministry

Advent Study and Compline

On December 3, 10 and 17 at 7:00 pm, Fr. Don will lead a study of major parables, with a video by Amy-Jill Levine. A professor of New Testament Studies at Vanderbilt University, Professor Levine bring a distinct Jewish understanding of parables as she helps to unfold how Jesus used them in his teachings.

On December 3, we will look at the parables of the Lost Sheep, the Lost Coin and the Lost Son.

On December 10, we will study the parable of the Good Samaritan.

On December 17 the study will focus on the Laborers in the Vineyard.

Each of the videos is short (about 10 minutes). A conversation will follow. The evening will conclude with Compline.

The text of the Compline Service and a study guide for each week's class can be downloaded from the Events page of the St. David's website.

The Prayer Station - "Just let God into the situation and hold it there"

Dr. Rowan Williams, former Archbishop of Canterbury, on intercessory prayer.

Deacon Hank and Pastoral Care Associate Kate are available to pray with you following the dismissal from the Sunday morning service.

The station is open for 30 minutes.

They each have their own Zoom link on the Events page. Join them by clicking on the link with their name.

They look forward to meeting you in prayer.

Something New in Pastoral Care! Telephone Call Ministry

We want to stay connected as a St. David's community, so several of our parishioners are each taking a page from the roster and will call everyone on that page – including YOU - every month or two.

They'll be making a friendly visit with some conversation, and then ask how you are doing. It's something we can do as "way of love" – a way our Presiding Bishop Michael Curry calls us to live and be for one another. Don't be surprised when you hear from us!

Pastoral Associate Kate will continue making her calls, but now you'll also hear from another St. David's parishioner as well. It's all good!

You Are Invited to Contemplative Prayer

St. David's and St. Francis Dunellen, are partnered to offer us multiple opportunities for Contemplative Prayer each month.

St. David's meets on the 1st and 3rd Monday of each month at 7 PM - December 7th and 21st.

<http://www.stdavidscranbury.com/events.html> You can phone into St. David's Zoom by calling 1-646-876-9923, meeting ID 451 815-3355#, and when prompted for participant ID press #.

St. Francis' group meets every Wednesday at 1 PM

<https://www.stfrancisdunellen.org> You can phone into St. Francis Zoom by calling 1-669-900-6833, meeting ID 595-854-4455 #, when prompted for participant ID press #, for password enter 2475689.

No experience with silent prayer or meditation is needed, just the desire to pray "the simplest form of prayer there is" (Cynthia Bourgeault), and at a time such as this, keeping it simple may be exactly what is needed! We provide an introduction to contemplative prayer at the beginning of each session.

If you have any questions or would like to learn about contemplative prayer before joining us, contact Kate at 609-658-7315 or k_oconnor22@verizon.net

Please remember in your Prayers this week: Judy Evans, Tom Evans, Karen Rowden, Michael Koretsky, Don Nancoo, Lourdes Sanchez, Nora, Gabriel, Adrian Sun, Cameron Polanco, Tappen Soper, Barbara, Elke Lindemann, Mary Channon Cushing, Ken Robinson, Lynda Hammel, Beau Sawyer, Meridith Stout, Yvonne Tessier, Theresa Wilson, Ed Merkel, Tracy Rozkowski, Alyssa, Debbie, Susan Harroun, Carol Toth, Omar Holmes, Kathleen Sinclair, Ed Kornberg, Ron Surtz, Sue Dell, Talan, Linda, Rita, Marion, Lisa, Lillian, David Muggeo, Jane Muggeo, Lisa Muggeo, Gary Long, Diane Roby, Arthur Roby, Laura, Mary, Jeff Reed, Paul Szymanski, Bea, Rachel Krimkowitz, Harry Krimkowitz, Nicole Sitko, Thomas Gregory, Rita Lecorchick, Robin Machnik, Joanne Morse, Roger Hammel, Timothy Doyle, Linda Turato, Adam Krimkowitz, Neal Rouse, Loraine, Kathy, Laura, Cliff Shore, Alice Wilberforce, Doug Szalai, Diane Doscher, Lily Chung, Bill, Piper Sousa, Hilda Delgado, Carl, Kai, Tom Coulter, Joyce, Brian, Carl, Joyce, Nanci B., Stewart Sowter, Marna McDermott, Kristen Holobowicz, Sarah Nestroock, Ted, Katie Turner, Jennie Herbert, Barbara Ann Stoner, George Grau, Sharon, Barbara M., Leslie Terhune, Diane, Aiden, Corinne Peters, Keith Franks, Carlye Machnik, Sue Shouldis, Baby NcKeana Grace and Family.
