

St. David's Episcopal Church
Third Sunday of Advent
Sunday, December 13, 2020 – 9:00 am

Opening Hymn

1982 Hymnal 640

Watchmen Tell us of the Night

- 1 Watchman, tell us of the night,
what its signs of promise are.
Traveler, o'er yon mountain's height, see that glory-beaming star.
Watchman, does its beauteous ray aught of joy or hope foretell?
Traveler, yes; it brings the day,
promised day of Israel.
- 2 Watchman, tell us of the night;
higher yet that star ascends.
Traveler, blessedness and light,
peace and truth its course portends.
Watchman, will its beams alone
gild the spot that gave them birth?
Traveler, ages are its own;
see, it bursts o'er all the earth.
- 3 Watchman, tell us of the night,
for the morning seems to dawn.
Traveler, darkness takes its flight, doubt and terror are withdrawn.
Watchman, let thy wanderings cease;
hie thee to thy quiet home.
Traveler, lo! the Prince of Peace,
lo! the Son of God is come!

Lighting of the Candles of the Advent Wreath

Peeters Family

Reader 1: The third candle on an Advent wreath, usually pink, symbolizes joy. Christmas excitement is building as the holiday quickly approaches. Listen to a reading from Luke.

Reader 2: The angel reassured them. “Don’t be afraid!” he said. “I bring you good news that will bring great joy to all people. (Luke 2:10).

Reader 1: The angels made a big announcement on the first Christmas, calling Jesus’ birth ‘good news’ that would bring ‘great joy.’ Everything we do to get ready for Christmas can fill us with joy about Jesus. When we’re joyful, we, like the angels, can help spread that good news.

Light the first three candles (the two purple and the pink candles or three blue candles) on your Advent wreath.

All: Three candles, burning bright, Chasing away darkness, showing God's might.
Three candles, glowing bright,
The blessing of God, giving new sight.

Reader 3: Let us pray.

Dear God, we pray for the joy that is found in Jesus, that those who seek it may truly find it. May we celebrate in the joy found in You.
Amen.

O come, O come, Emanuel (verse 1)

O come, O come, Emmanuel,
And ransom captive Israel,
That mourns in lonely exile here,
Until the Son of God appear.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel Shall come to thee, O Israel.

Priest: Come once more, with eager longing to receive the promises of God.
(as we form the sign of the Cross)

All: Out of the desert places of our lives we gather with joy and gladness.

Priest: Happy are those who help is the God of Jacob, whose hope is in the Lord their God.

All: Our God has promised that lonely places and deserts will be glad and blossom as the rose.

Priest: Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

Priest: Lord, have mercy.

People: Christ, have mercy.

Priest: Lord, have mercy.

Collect of the Day

Priest The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Priest Let us pray.

Priest In time of anxiety, illness suffering and death, your people turn to you for hope and comfort. Stir up your power, O Lord, and with great might come among us; and, because we are sorely hindered by our sins, let your bountiful grace and mercy speedily help and deliver us; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever.

People: Amen.

The First Lesson
Isaiah 61:1-4,8-11

Peter Tobasco

The spirit of the Lord God is upon me, because the Lord has anointed me; he has sent me to bring good news to the oppressed, to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and release to the prisoners; to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn; to provide for those who mourn in Zion—to give them a garland instead of ashes, the oil of gladness instead of mourning, the mantle of praise instead of a faint spirit. They will be called oaks of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, to display his glory. They shall build up the ancient ruins, they shall raise up the former devastations; they shall repair the ruined cities, the devastations of many generations. For I the Lord love justice, I hate robbery and wrongdoing; I will faithfully give them their recompense, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them. Their descendants shall be known among the nations, and their offspring among the peoples; all who see them shall acknowledge that they are a people whom the Lord has blessed. I will greatly rejoice in the Lord, my whole being shall exult in my God; for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation, he has covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decks himself with a garland, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels. For as the earth brings forth its shoots, and as a garden causes what is sown in it to spring up, so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring up before all the nations.

Reader The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 126
In convertendo

Led by Peter Tobasco

- 1 When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion, * then were we like those who dream.

- 2 Then was our mouth filled with laughter, ***
 and our tongue with shouts of joy.

- 3 Then they said among the nations, *
 “The Lord has done great things for them.”

- 4 The Lord has done great things for us,  and we are glad indeed.
- 5 Restore our fortunes, O Lord, *
 like the watercourses of the Negev.
- 6 Those who sowed with tears  will reap with songs of joy.
- 7 Those who go out weeping, carrying the seed, *
 will come again with joy, shouldering their sheaves.

Second Reading

Peter Tobasco

1 Thessalonians 5:16-24

Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you. Do not quench the Spirit. Do not despise the words of prophets, but test everything; hold fast to what is good; abstain from every form of evil. May the God of peace himself sanctify you entirely; and may your spirit and soul and body be kept sound and blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. The one who calls you is faithful, and he will do this.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Sequence Hymn

1982 Hymnal 72

Hark, the Glad Sound!

- 1 Hark, the glad sound! the Savior comes,
 the Savior promised long:
 let every heart prepare a throne,
 and every voice a song.
- 3 He comes, the broken heart to bind,
 the bleeding soul to cure;
 and with the treasures of his grace to enrich the humble poor.
- 4 Our glad hosannas, Prince of Peace,
 thy welcome shall proclaim;
 and heaven's eternal arches ring with thy beloved Name.

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him. He himself was not the light, but he came to testify to the light. This is the testimony given by John when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?" He confessed and did not deny it, but confessed, "I am not the Messiah." And they asked him, "What then? Are you Elijah?" He said, "I am not." "Are you the prophet?" He answered, "No." Then they said to him, "Who are you? Let us have an answer for those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?" He said, "I am the voice of one crying out in the wilderness, 'Make straight the way of the Lord,'" as the prophet Isaiah said. Now they had been sent from the Pharisees. They asked him, "Why then are you baptizing if you are neither the Messiah, nor Elijah, nor the prophet?" John answered them, "I baptize with water. Among you stands one whom you do not know, the one who is coming after me; I am not worthy to untie the thong of his sandal." This took place in Bethany across the Jordan where John was baptizing.

Children's Sermon

Deacon Hank

Sermon

Father Don

The Nicene Creed

All: We believe in one God,
 the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
 of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
 the only Son of God,
 eternally begotten of the Father,
 God from God, Light from Light,
 true God from true God,
 begotten, not made,
 of one Being with the Father.
 Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Led by Deacon Hank

Deacon: God of power and might, tear open the heavens and come quickly to this weary world. Hear our prayers for everyone in need.

A brief silence.

Deacon: God of preachers and messengers, you have entrusted your church with the work of proclaiming good news. Strengthen the witness of bishops, priests, deacons, church musicians, lay leaders, and all people who contribute their prayers and talents to public worship. Embed your word in their hearts. We pray especially the Archbishop of Canterbury Justin, our Presiding Bishop Michael, our Bishop William, our Priest Don, our Deacon Hank, Brother John, Pastoral Associate Kate, Deacon Postulant Carol and Postulant Allie. We pray to the Lord.

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Deacon: God of every living creature, you announce the year of your favor for all of creation. Extend your kindness and relief to endangered animals and plants. Strengthen the human beings who rely on the rhythms of nature to make their living. We pray to the Lord.

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Deacon: God of all peoples and nations, you plant us as your oaks of righteousness and ask us to care for one another. Be present with the leaders of every nation as they govern. Give them a spirit of righteousness, that your goodness and mercy is revealed through their actions. We pray to the Lord.

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Deacon: God of exiles and wanderers, you repair what was once destroyed. We pray for people who have been displaced from their homes by fire, flood, earthquake, or storms. We pray to the Lord.

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Deacon: God of the powerful and helpless, you clothe us with strength when our spirits are weak and weary. Bestow your spirit upon this congregation and empower us to comfort the people who turn to us in times of need. Make your church a place of refuge and healing. We especially pray for those on our parish prayer list.

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Deacon: We especially pray today in remembrance and thanksgiving for the birthdays of Patricia Kraft, Beth Nagle, Tim Kovacs, and Elizabeth Lewis-Channon and also the wedding anniversary of Kenneth & Linda Kelly. We pray to the Lord.

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Deacon: God of sinners and saints, you offer joy even in the midst of our grief. We are grateful for the beloved, imperfect people whose lives testified to your radiant love especially those taken by the coronavirus. Anoint all who mourn with the oil of gladness. We pray to the Lord.

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Deacon: Draw near to us, O God, and receive our prayers for the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

Confession of Sin

All: Holy and loving God, we have dwelt in darkness and preferred it to the light;
we have been proud of our accomplishments and despaired over our shortcomings.
Smooth down the mountains of our pride, and lift up the valleys of our doubts.

Open a path in the wilderness of our lives that we might find our way to you again.
Refine us and prepare us once again for life in your kingdom.
Hear our prayer, O Lord. Amen.

Breathe your grace into our lives.
Forgive our wandering ways, and guide us along your paths of peace.
When we lose our way, and forget the reason and purpose of this season,
carry us back to you.
Lead us up to that high mountain of faith and hope, that we might truly proclaim:
"Here is our God!"

Priest: "Comfort, O comfort my people," says our God. You have served your term. Your penalty is paid. In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Amen.

The Peace

Priest: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

The Holy Communion

Priest: Gracious and generous Creator, your people come before you this day with the offering of their whole selves, of all that they are, and all that they have. The gifts they have made to support the ministry and mission of St. David's Church are a symbol of their very lives and their commitment to invest a portion of themselves in your on-going work in the world. May those who make this sacrifice of praise and gratitude be so filled with your own generous spirit, that it pours out of each and every one into the world around them. Hear these prayers and accept our humble gifts. Bless them. Make them abound that all people through our work and sacrifice in your name, may know and feel your abundant blessings. All this we ask of you, our Creator, Redeemer and Sanctifier. Amen.

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Priest: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Priest: It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks, holy Father, almighty and eternal God. In this Season of Advent, as we remember the first coming of Jesus, born among us, looking forward once again to Christmas, and as we wait in joyful expectation for the return of Christ our Lord on the last day, we huddle in the safety of our homes, conscious of the dangers of a pandemic that has overtaken the whole world. We live in Advent hope for grace and healing for the world and eagerly await a new proclamation of joy for all people. We join with all the Angels to praise your majesty and worship together with exultation as we acclaim

Priest and People: Holy, holy, holy God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.
 Hosanna in the highest.
 Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
 Hosanna in the highest.

Priest: Holy and gracious Father:
In this time of fear and stress, we turn our hearts to you, looking for your help and consolation.
The colorful leaves of fall once again turn toward winter, yet we still hear the advice of medical experts who tell us to separate ourselves from each other for our own safety, and out of concern for one another.
Today we celebrate your love for all creation, and we remember the many times when our community of faith has gathered to be fed by your word and sacrament.
We remember the many times in ages past when your people were fed through your loving care.
In this Advent of isolation,
we remember the food you provided your People as they journeyed through the wilderness toward the Promised land.

We remember how Jesus fed the multitudes who had come to listen to his preaching in another wilderness place.

And above all,
we remember the evening when Jesus gathered with a small group of his friends, to link his life to the ancient story of liberation celebrated by the Jewish people in the Passover.

Jesus took the simple food and drink before him and created for all time a means by which those who love him may be joined intimately with him.
He created a sacrament for your Church, but in this time of sickness,
when our joyful celebrations are curtailed,
we cannot gather as we would wish.

So we turn to your words, “Whenever you do this, [whenever you eat and drink,] do it in remembrance of me.”

We have feasted on your word, and now we give thanks that your love reaches to our generation so that having this food before us reminds us of the abundance of your goodness through which we are sustained every day.

With sorrow,
we mourn the loss of receiving your blessed Body and Blood.
With gratitude, we take what you have made available to us as a taste of your abundant grace. We thank you, Lord, our God

All: We thank you, Lord our God.

Priest: As one family we now pray as our Savior Christ has taught us,

All: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Priest: Loving God, bless all those spiritually gathered here today, as we remember the friendship and fellowship of our church.
Thank you for the blessings of our individual and collective God-given gifts.
Place in our hearts the desire to make a difference to our families, to our community, to our country,
and to the many cultures and peoples worldwide.
Give us peace in these times of distraction and uncertainty.
Thank you for food in a world where many know only hunger;
For our faith in a world where many know fear;
For friends in a world where many know only loneliness.

Please bless this food we are about to share,
Bless those through whose work we have it and those who have worked to make today the special occasion that it is.
For all of this we give you thanks.

All: We give you thanks.

Led by Kate O'Connor

In union, O Lord, with your faithful people at every altar of your Church, we desire to offer to you our praise and thanksgiving. We remember your death, Lord Christ; we proclaim your resurrection; we await your coming in glory. Since we cannot receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, we pray that you will come spiritually into our hearts. Cleanse and strengthen us with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let us never be separated from you. May we live in you, and you in us, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

Communion Song

Thom Boyer, Tenor

There is No Rose of Such Virtue from Sting's "If on a winter's night..."

All eat and drink from the food before us. After all have tasted of the food (the food may be finished after the conclusion of the service) and the music has concluded.

Post Communion Prayer

Priest: Let us pray

All: Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ.

You have fed us with the spiritual food of your Word and you have given us the means to partake of the good things you have given us.
Make us mindful now that you have called us to be your presence in this world, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you and the people you have set before us with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Vestry and Discernment Committee Prayer

All: Lord, we ask you to guide the members of our Vestry and Discernment Committee so that they may hear Your voice leading St. David's Church into the future to which you are calling us.
Give them wisdom and insight into the qualities of Leadership needed to best serve our precious church. Inspire also the person You intend to be our spiritual leader and pastor. Give us all a sense of happy anticipation as we await the one we know will be the right one according to Your plan for us.
We pray in Jesus' name. Amen.

Final Blessing

Priest: Let the Lord steer you in the way of truth.
Be on your guard so that you will not be caught up in the trivialities and anxieties of the world.
Be alert at all times and pray for strength to escape the traps that would keep you from God.

And may God make you increase in love for one another;
May Christ Jesus teach you how to live in God's ways;
and may the Holy Spirit strengthen your hearts in holiness, as you ready yourselves for the coming of the Lord.

May the blessing of God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit ✝ be with you and remain with you always.
Amen.

The King Shall Come

- 1 The King shall come when morning dawns
and light triumphant breaks;
when beauty gilds the eastern hills and life to joy awakes.

- 4 and let the endless bliss begin,
by weary saints foretold,
when right shall triumph over wrong,
and truth shall be extolled.

- 5 The King shall come when morning dawns
and light and beauty brings:
Hail, Christ the Lord! Thy people pray, come quickly, King of kings.

Dismissal

Deacon: Go in peace to love and serve the Lord, and one another.

All: Thanks be to God.

Announcements

Because of the recent rise in the infection rate of Covid-19 in the state of New Jersey, the Bishop has counseled churches of the Diocese to suspend in-person worship. For the time, St. David's will revert to the kind of online Zoom service that we had through the spring and summer. A special Advent service bulletin for our Zoom services will be found on the Events page of the website. You are encouraged to have an Advent Wreath at home, and join as families from the parish lead the candle lighting each week. We have every reason to hope that major shut-down across the state will bring a decrease in the infection rate and allow us to resume in-person worship before Christmas.

When the church is once again open for worship, registration for the in-person service is primarily online, using the link found on the Events page of the parish website. It will cap attendance at 25 households. We will keep three future services up so that you can pre-register. Right now, it seems that the maximum number of registrants is not being met, so if you have already attended a service and you would want to attend the following week, you may do so.

Moving forward, registration for services will remain open and only close once the maximum capacity limitation of 25 is met.

The altar party (priest, deacon, lay reader, music director) must also register (remember to put your title next to your name.)

Advent Study and Compline

On December 17 at 7:00 pm, Fr. Don will lead a study of major parables, with a video by Amy-Jill Levine. A professor of New Testament Studies at Vanderbilt University, Professor Levine brings a distinct Jewish understanding of parables as she helps to unfold how Jesus used them in his teachings.

On December 17 the study will focus on the Laborers in the Vineyard.

Each of the videos is short (about 10 minutes). A conversation will follow. The evening will conclude with Compline.

The text of the Compline Service and a study guide for each week's class can be downloaded from the Events page of the St. David's website.

Sunday December 13 will be "Creche Sunday" when, after the Service, people will be invited to show their home Nativity figures on Zoom. If you email a picture to Todd at tdd.wht@gmail.com, he can create a video, or you can move your computer camera after the Service so we can see it.

The Prayer Station - "Just let God into the situation and hold it there"

Dr. Rowan Williams, former Archbishop of Canterbury, on intercessory prayer.

Deacon Hank and Pastoral Care Associate Kate are available to pray with you following the dismissal from the Sunday morning service.

The station is open for 30 minutes.

They each have their own Zoom link on the Events page. Join them by clicking on the link with their name.

They look forward to meeting you in prayer.

Children's Christmas Eve Service + 12/24/20

This year, our Children's Christmas Eve Service will be outdoors – rain or shine – beginning at 4:30 PM in the parking lot 'island.' Please consider wearing a simple costume of either a head dress, walking staff, or maybe a long robe! Spacing ourselves in family units about a new crèche scene, we will gradually fill it with the animals and figures of the Nativity while reading the Story of Jesus' Birth!

PLEASE JOIN US! You can Register to attend with Jean Hegedus (jean.t.hegedus@lycra.com) and let her know whether your family would like to offer one of the READINGS! Please call me if you would like to Help, or with any questions.

Something New in Pastoral Care! Telephone Call Ministry

We want to stay connected as a St. David's community, so several of our parishioners are each taking a page from the roster and will call everyone on that page – including YOU - every month or two.

They'll be making a friendly visit with some conversation, and then ask how you are doing. It's something we can do as "way of love" – a way our Presiding Bishop Michael Curry calls us to live and be for one another. Don't be surprised when you hear from us!

Pastoral Associate Kate will continue making her calls, but now you'll also hear from another St. David's parishioner as well. It's all good!

You Are Invited to Contemplative Prayer

St. David's and St. Francis Dunellen, are partnered to offer us multiple opportunities for Contemplative Prayer each month.

St. David's meets on the 1st and 3rd Monday of each month at 7 PM - December 7th and 21st.

<http://www.stdavidscranbury.com/events.html> You can phone into St. David's Zoom by calling 1-646-876-9923, meeting ID 451 815-3355#, and when prompted for participant ID press #.

St. Francis' group meets every Wednesday at 1 PM

<https://www.stfrancisduellen.org> You can phone into St. Francis Zoom by calling 1-669-900-6833, meeting ID 595-854-4455 #, when prompted for participant ID press #, for password enter 2475689.

No experience with silent prayer or meditation is needed, just the desire to pray "the simplest form of prayer there is" (Cynthia Bourgeault), and at a time such as this, keeping it simple may be exactly what is needed! We provide an introduction to contemplative prayer at the beginning of each session.

If you have any questions or would like to learn about contemplative prayer before joining us, contact Kate at 609-658-7315 or k_oconnor22@verizon.net

Please remember in your Prayers this week: Judy Evans, Tom Evans, Karen Rowden, Michael Koretsky, Don Nancoo, Lourdes Sanchez, Nora, Gabriel, Adrian Sun, Cameron Polanco, Tappen Soper, Barbara, Elke Lindemann, Mary Channon Cushing, Ken Robinson, Lynda Hammel, Beau Sawyer, Meridith Stout, Yvonne Tessier, Theresa Wilson, Ed Merkel, Tracy Rozkowski, Alyssa, Debbie, Susan Harroun, Carol Toth, Omar Holmes, Kathleen Sinclair, Ron Surtz, Sue Dell, Talan, Linda, Rita, Marion, Lisa, Lillian, David Muggeo, Jane Muggeo, Lisa Muggeo, Gary Long, Diane Roby, Arthur Roby, Laura, Mary, Jeff Reed, Paul Szymanski, Bea, Rachel Krimkowitz, Harry Krimkowitz, Nicole Sitko, Thomas Gregory, Rita Lecorchick, Robin Machnik, Joanne Morse, Roger Hammel, Timothy Doyle, Linda Turato, Adam Krimkowitz, Neal Rouse, Loraine, Kathy, Laura, Cliff Shore, Alice Wilberforce, Doug Szalai, Lily Chung, Bill, Piper Sousa, Hilda Delgado, Carl, Kai, Tom Coulter, Joyce, Brian, Carl, Joyce, Nanci B., Stewart Sowter, Kristen Holobowicz, Sarah Nestrock, Ted, Katie Turner, Jennie Herbert, Barbara Ann Stoner, George Grau, Sharon, Barbara M., Leslie Terhune, Diane, Aiden, Keith Franks, Carley Machnik, Gary Kaylor, Baby NcKeana Grace and Family.
