Lesson

Exodus 32:7-14

Tom Pearson

Reader	A reading from the Book of Exodus
--------	-----------------------------------

The Lord said to Moses, “Go down at once! Your people, whom you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have acted perversely; they have been quick to turn aside from the way that I commanded them; they have cast for themselves an image of a calf, and have worshiped it and sacrificed to it, and said, ‘These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!’” The Lord said to Moses, “I have seen this people, how stiff-necked they are. Now let me alone, so that my wrath may burn hot against them and I may consume them; and of you I will make a great nation.” But Moses implored the Lord his God, and said, “O Lord, why does your wrath burn hot against your people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand? Why should the Egyptians say, ‘It was with evil intent that he brought them out to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth?’ Turn from your fierce wrath; change your mind and do not bring disaster on your people. Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants, how you swore to them by your own self, saying to them, ‘I will multiply your descendants like the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have promised I will give to your descendants, and they shall inherit it forever.’” And the Lord changed his mind about the disaster that he planned to bring on his people.

Lesson

1 Timothy 1:12-17

Jordan Bailey

Reader A reading from the first Letter of Paul to Timothy.

I am grateful to Christ Jesus our Lord, who has strengthened me, because he judged me faithful and appointed me to his service, even though I was formerly a blasphemer, a persecutor, and a man of violence. But I received mercy because I had acted ignorantly in unbelief, and the grace of our Lord overflowed for me with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. The saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners—of whom I am the foremost. But for that very reason I received mercy, so that in me, as the foremost, Jesus Christ might display the utmost patience, making me an example to those who would come to believe in him for eternal life. To the King of the ages, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

Deacon           The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
                          according to Luke.
People            Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Now all the tax collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to Jesus. And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, “This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them.” So he told them this parable: “Which one of you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the one that is lost until he finds it? When he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders and rejoices. And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbors, saying to them, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost.’ Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance. Or what woman having ten silver coins, if she loses one of them, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search carefully until she finds it? When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin that I had lost.’ Just so, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents.”

The Sermon

The Rev. Amy S. Cornell

✠ The Nicene Creed

BCP p. 358

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Leslie Terhune

Reader: With all our heart and all our mind, we pray to you, O Lord.

People: Make us instruments of your peace.

Reader: For the peace of the world, that a spirit of respect and forbearance may grow among nations and peoples, we pray to you, O Lord:

People: Where there is hatred, let us sow love.

Reader: For our enemies and those who wish us harm, especially those who are led to acts of terror; that in the aftermath of the destruction in New York, Pennsylvania, and Washington on September 11th, 2001 we may grow ever more deeply in your spirit of justice and peace, we pray to you, O Lord:

People: Where there is injury, let us sow pardon.

Reader: For all who believe in you, Lord Christ, and all whose faith is known to you alone, that they may be delivered from the darkness of fanaticism that arises from poverty and oppression, and from the pride that arises from wealth and comfort, and brought into your light, so that divisions that foster violence may cease, we pray to you, O Lord:

People: Where there is discord, let us sow union.

Reader: For those who have lost their faith in you Lord God, for those who continue to mourn those who died in the World Trade Center, the airplanes and the Pentagon, may your Church give comfort and hope in this time of remembrance, we pray to you, O Lord:

People: Where there is doubt, let us sow faith.

Reader: For all those whose spirit has been broken and whose lives have been irrevocably disrupted by the violence of that day and its aftermath, we offer our prayers along with the persecuted, the lonely, and the sick who have bid our prayers today, that they may be relieved and protected. Especially we pray for all those on our parish prayer list. We pray to you, O Lord:

People: Where there is despair, let us sow hope.

Reader: For the mission and ministry of the Episcopal Church, especially in the Diocese of New Jersey; for that we may listen to the Gospel of reconciliation and proclaim it in word and action for the building of your reign here on earth. We remember in thanksgiving the birthdays of Jennifer McKay, Lillian Lea and the wedding anniversaries of David & Patricia Thomsson, Mike & Kim Duck, Larry & Pat Kraft and Steve & Elizabeth Channon, we pray to you, O Lord:

People: Where there is darkness, let us sow light.

Reader: For all who died in the terror of September 2001 and for those others whom we remember today, for those who believed in your resurrection and those who knew not your promise of eternal life, in trust that they have been found by you and are at rest in your holy habitation, we pray to you, O Lord:

People: Where there is sadness, let us sow joy.

Reader: Grant that we may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood, as to understand; to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are reborn to eternal life. Amen.

✠ Confession of Sin

(the people may stand or kneel)

Deacon Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

People      Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Welcoming our New Deacon

Blessing of Backpacks

Mother Amy: Lord, bless this water through the power of your Holy Spirit as a reminder of how you make us your children through the waters of baptism. As this water touches your children, and the packs they carry, may you fill each of them with the Power and Wisdom of your Holy Spirit.

Dear Lord, as these children carry these backpacks to school as symbols of the task you have given us to learn about your world, help them remember that they carry you, Lord Jesus, in their hearts. Bless them, in the name of the Father, Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Now, will all teachers, teachers' aides, and everyone who works in a school or in our church school stand, if you are able:

(Romans 12:4-8)

“For as in one body we have many members, and not all the members have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another. We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us: prophecy, in proportion to faith; ministry, in ministering; the teacher, in teaching; the exhorter, in exhortation; the giver, in generosity; the leader, in diligence; the compassionate, in cheerfulness.” The schools that teach our children and help them live out their vocation requires a body of people with different gifts. We bless you now as you begin your vocation of helping children in this new year.

Mother Amy: Let us pray.

Lord God, we ask your blessings on these men and women who serve you in so many different ways. We pray that you would give them patience, wisdom, and a sense of humor. Use them to show children your love and to guide children as they grow in the body of Christ. Bless them, in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Lord, as we bless these symbols of our vocations, help each of us to remember that you call us to be your ministers in the world through our words and deeds. In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Celebrant            The Lord be with you.

People                And also with you.

Celebrant            Lift up your hearts.

People                We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant            Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People                It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant            It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. For you are the source of light and life; you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord. Therefore, we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

Celebrant Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom. All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Jesus Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory
for ever and ever. Amen.

September Outreach - Habitat for Humanity

Habitat for Humanity is beginning the construction of the second duplex in Hightstown. The first duplex was completed and occupied with financial assistance from St. David's. Our 50th year campaign supplied over $23,000 to the first build. The second build will commence on October 1st at the First Presbyterian Church in Hamilton Square. The September Outreach will be Habitat for Humanity to fund the construction of the second duplex. A generous congregant has pledged $2,500 to match donations from the congregation. Please give generously.

On October 1, there will be a build at the First Presbyterian Church in Hamilton Square to construct the walls of the second duplex. Everyone is welcome to participate, and we would love to have large participation in this project – please give serious consideration to joining us! Everyone is welcome! ## Calling All St. David's Golfers

On Monday October 10, 2022 (a holiday for many) Trinity Episcopal Cathedral will hold the 18th annual Bishop George E. Councill Memorial Golf Outing at Mercer Oaks Golf Course in West Windsor (like our back yard). Since its founding, the Outing has raised over $500,000 for the many vital ministries of our Cathedral giving sustenance, shelter, education, skills, and hope to thousands in need each year. It brings together scores of congregants from dozens of parishes from across the diocese for a truly fun and inspiring day of golf and fellowship. It's for women and men golfers of all ages and skill levels and the dinner's fantastic. For years, St. David's proudly fielded a rag tag foursome, but with Covid, flagged. We hope we will do it again, especially this year, the last at which Bishop Stokes will preside before he retires. It costs $200.00 per golfer, much of which is tax deductible, and here's what you get:

- Light breakfast followed by Eucharist on 18th green Greens fees and cart fees
- Swag bag
- Lunch
- On course beverages, games, and contests
- Reception with raffle and silent auction
- Bishop's Award Dinner, which you can enjoy on its own for a contribution of $85

Come to golf, come to dinner, come have a ball, come pay your regards to the Bishop and know you just did a mitzvah. Go to the cathedral web site at www.trinitycathedralnj.org for all the details and call the parish office to express interest.
