"Believe in miracles. I have seen so many of them come when every other indication would say that hope was lost. Hope is never lost." ~ Jeffrey R. Holland

I've been thinking lately about miracles. Most of which started in the dentist's chair.

Now let me give you a little background – a couple of weeks ago I had a crown that came out of a tooth where there had been a root canal (=no pain, but a pain!) I went to a wonderful dentist who told me that the remaining tooth must come out, and she would send me to an oral surgeon for some advice on what to do. See, this was the third tooth in a row that had the same problem, and the solution each time was to extract.

I wasn't feeling very optimistic when I went to Dr. Freid, since I assumed it would be just one more loss, and then a matter of time for the next tooth to go. Luckily, he sat with me and discussed all kinds of options, one of them being an implant. Now, if you get grossed out, you can skip the next sentence. The first step is to take a small portion of bone from a human mandible and attach it to my jawbone, and allow the healing to graft the two together. I was absolutely floored, and we had quite a discussion about the miraculous ways our bodies work, how we strive to heal, and how the medical profession can engage in such activities that could never have been even considered years ago. And I said to him, "This seems miraculous to me."

As we approach the time of year when the greatest miracle of all – Christ's resurrection – is remembered and celebrated throughout all of Christianity, I'm thinking about miracles. The miracle of healing. The miracle of science. The miracle that we are even here, wandering the earth, complaining about the weather and the cost of dental work. Looking at the bible might lead us to think there were so many miracles then, and none happen in our modern day. But this Holy Week and the start of our Easter season gives us an opportunity to see that there are no less miracles than ever have been in history. The miracles just need to be noticed and noted. No matter how much a doctor explains how this bone fusion works, I can't help but call it a miracle that we can do this and in such an ordinary way.

This year, in Holy Week and beyond, take time to look for those miraculous moments that happen in your life and in the lives of others in our community. Consider coming to one more service than usual during Holy Week, where the miracle of Jesus's sacrifice is remembered and honored. Hope to see you then.

This table represents the financial results for the first two months and a projection for the end of year results. At present, pledge income exceeds budget due to prepaid pledges and strong giving. At the moment projected income is essentially on budget. Of concern are the Building and Grounds expenses which is substantially over budget due to high building maintenance and utility costs. Every effort must be made to contain these expenses for the rest of the year, for example we can do spring clean-up instead of paying our landscaper. ## April Outreach Urban Promise

Since 2011 Urban Promise Trenton has worked to provide a path to better opportunities and a better future for children and youth. Our goal is to create and maintain programs that allow students the opportunity to progress in life skills, spirituality, and education with the support of a passionate team behind them.

Urban Promise is a much-respected charity providing much-needed educational support to under-privileged youth in Trenton. It is also a favorite charity of our retiring bishop.

The Deacon's Cupboard... Let us work together to fill the cupboard.... feed the hungry, shelter the homeless, clothe the naked and by doing so, we can express our love for all of God's children.

Today I am sharing a reading from a book called Jesus Always written by Sarah Young. She wrote this scripture-based calendar book as a way to increase our joy and strengthen our relationship with Jesus.

March 30

“ I am the Light from on High *that dawns upon you, to give light to those who sit in darkness. Sometimes your circumstances are so difficult and confusing that you feel as if you're surrounded by darkness. Your mind offers up various solutions to your problems, but you have already tried them - without success. So you fret and wonder what to do next, feeling helpless and frustrated. At times like this, you need to look up and see My Light shining down upon you. Gaze at Me in childlike trust, resting in My Presence. Let go of the problem-solving efforts for a while. Cease striving, and know that I am God.

As you relax in My Presence, remember that I am the Prince of Peace. The more of Me you absorb, the more peaceful you will be. Breathe Me in with each breath. After resting with Me for a while, tell Me about your troubles - trusting Me to help you with them. Stay close to Me, My child, and I will guide your feet into the way of Peace.”

Luke 1:78-79; Psalm 46:10; Isaiah 9:6

Blessings of Peace during our Lenten journey,

Deacon Carol

Amy Mansue, president and CEO of Inspira Health is one of 26 female hospital and health organization CEOs nationwide recently honored by Becker's Hospital.

Women are increasingly taking on the top executive positions at hospitals and health systems across the U.S., bringing an important perspective to the organization.

"Becker's Hospital Review is thrilled to honor these women in leadership roles. We accepted nominations for this list and selected members based on their leadership roles and accomplishments. Individuals do not pay and cannot pay to be featured," said a spokesperson.

Mansue, who has a nearly 30-year background in the health care field, was named president and CEO of Inspira Health in 2020. She is particularly dedicated to educating future healthcare professionals and plays a key role in forming and strengthening partnerships with the local medical community and educational institutions. The Professional Recognition Award recognizes Sami Abate for her nursing leadership through professional achievement that has made a significant impact on nursing.

HOLY WEEK AT ST. DAVID'S

April 2 - April 9, 2023

Holy Week is the most significant and dramatic week of the entire Church Year. It contains some of the richest symbolism, the most stirring rites and customs, and has been provided with some of the finest music the Church has created. The week begins with Palm Sunday, and the sacred Triduum (the three holy days) begins at sunset on Thursday and continues through sunset on Saturday. This liturgy begins on Thursday evening and continues through until the Easter Vigil Mass, with each service part and parcel of the whole.

Palm Sunday—April 2

On Palm Sunday, the liturgy has two distinct parts. At each service, we will begin outdoors with The Liturgy of the Palms, a rite of joy and triumph. As we recall our Lord's entry into Jerusalem, we wave our palm branches and sing of his glory as we process into the sanctuary. The atmosphere changes and, this year, the Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ is read from the Gospel according to Luke. This dramatic reading includes the congregation in various parts. We are now fully into the experience of Holy Week and, in the words of the preface to the Eucharistic Prayer, we celebrate Christ who was "lifted high upon the cross to draw the entire world to himself."

Monday — April 3

Monday is Evensong, using the readings of Holy Monday. The service will mostly be chanted, in a simple plainsong tone that all can join in together.

Tuesday — April 4

Tuesday evening's service is the Stations of the Cross, walking through the final steps of Jesus as he approaches the cross and his death. The prayers focus on the traditional walk that is marked in Jerusalem and symbolized in the stations we have here in the church

Wednesday — April 5

Wednesday's Tennebrae service is known as the Service of Darkness when ancient texts are read aloud as the space is slowly immersed in darkness as candles are slowly extinguished to focus on the upcoming three days.

Maundy Thursday—April 6

The Maundy Thursday service marks the beginning of the Triduum, and it commemorates the evening meal shared by Jesus and His friends. At this meal, Jesus showed His love to His disciples in the simple act of washing their feet. The foot washing echoes the mandate of Christ to love one another, a powerful symbol of the church's vocation to follow its savior in acts of servant ministry. We will share a meal together at 6 pm and then move into the church for the service at 7:30 pm. After the celebration of Holy Eucharist, there is a procession to the Altar of Repose, located in the Fish Library, where the sacrament is placed until Good Friday. The vigil will end with Morning Prayer at 7 am. After the sacrament is removed, the members of our Altar Guild strip the Altar area of all remaining ornaments as Psalm 22 is recited. The liturgy ends and all leave in silence to either our homes or to sit vigil. Parishioners are asked to sign up for a time to sit vigil with our Lord in the garden. There is a sign-up sheet in the narthex for your use.

Good Friday – April 7

On Good Friday at 12 pm and 7:30 pm the Good Friday Liturgy will be offered. Both services will include veneration of the Cross and chanting of the Gospel and the Solemn Collects. We will conclude with Communion from the Reserved Sacrament. The congregation departs in silence to emphasize that it is not the end, but a pause, in the great liturgy of the Triduum.

The Great Easter Vigil – April 8

The Easter Vigil on Saturday evening is one of the most dramatic liturgies of the entire year. It is the Passover of the Lord, the paschal feast of the people of God. We gather at 7:30 pm outside to light the new fire and bring the light of Christ into the church. The oldest litany in the church, the Exsultet, is then chanted, and the history of the salvation of God's people is then told through four storytellers. This is followed by the renewal of baptismal vows and the reading of St. John of Chrysostom's Easter Vigil sermon. Then, as the celebrant says "Alleluia, Christ is Risen!," the ancient paschal greeting, the First Eucharist of Easter begins. The altar candles and the sanctuary are fully lighted, and the liturgy moves to its final segment, the celebration of the first mass of Easter. Light has broken through the darkness and in that light, we see the Risen Lord. The liturgy ends with the dismissal, concluding the sacred Triduum, the three holy days. After the service, join us for a festive celebration with sweets and something bubbly!

Easter Sunday - April 9

On Easter Sunday, there will be two choral services for our celebration of the Day of Resurrection. The services will begin at 8:00 am and 10:00 am with the St. David's Choir. Please feel free to attend the service that best fits your family's schedule. . Thanks to our J2A members, there will be an Easter Egg Hunt in between the two services! Lenten donation boxes may be brought with you on Easter Sunday or any Sunday thereafter.
