

Holy Eucharist – Rite II
First Sunday after Pentecost: Trinity Sunday
Rite 13
8 am & 10 am – June 12, 2022

Liturgy of the Word

✠ All stand if able.

As we continue to negotiate our way through the pandemic, we once again are taking steps toward returning to in person activities, beginning with services together.

All individuals within the building are asked to wear masks if unvaccinated. We also encourage all attendees to consider wearing their masks if indoors and unable to physically distance, or if you have been recently traveling. This is one of two very effective ways to prevent the spread of this and many other airborne diseases. Masks are effective in situations where we are not able to physically distance, but it is important to remember that distancing is still the most effective way to avoid spread. Please maintain a 6” distancing whenever possible and while sitting in the church, sit within your normal “bubble” of family members or friends you see more than 3 times a week.

Choir members who are fully vaccinated are permitted to remove masks once in position but will still mask when singing during procession. Also, the priest and LEMs will mask while distributing communion.

It is still important to alert the church if you have tested positive for COVID-19 and have attended services. Also, if you are not feeling well in any way, please consider attending on Zoom for that week’s service.

It is a great joy to once again be gathered in the same place for worship, and still connecting with those who are at a distance as we continue our spiritual journey as a community. If you are attending the service on Zoom and would like communion brought to you on Sundays, please let the rector know (rector@stdavidscranbury.com) or put it in the chat to be seen on Sunday.

✠ Processional Hymn

Erica Spero, Piano
Joseph Eswine, Guitar

“Come, Now is the Time to Worship”

Come, now is the time to worship
Come, now is the time to give your heart
Come, just as you are to worship
Come, just as you are before your God
Come

One day ev’ry tongue will confess you are God
One day ev’ry knee will bow
Still, the greatest treasure remains for those Who gladly see you now.

Come, now is the time to worship
Come, now is the time to give your heart
Come, just as you are to worship
Come, just as you are before your God
Come

Maddi Clissold:
People:

Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Maddi:

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desire known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

People:

Amen.

The Lesson

Proverbs 8:1-4, 22-31

The Message

Madeleine Peeters: A reading from the book of Proverbs.

Do you hear Lady Wisdom calling? Can you hear Madame Insight raising her voice? She's taken her stand at First and Main, at the busiest intersection. Right in the city square where the traffic is thickest, she shouts, "You—I'm talking to all of you, everyone out here on the streets! Listen, you idiots—learn good sense! You blockheads—shape up! Don't miss a word of this—I'm telling you how to live well, I'm telling you how to live at your best. My mouth chews and savors and relishes truth—I can't stand the taste of evil! You'll only hear true and right words from my mouth; not one syllable will be twisted or skewed. You'll recognize this as true—you with open minds; truth-ready minds will see it at once. Prefer my life-disciplines over chasing after money, and God-knowledge over a lucrative career. For Wisdom is better than all the trappings of wealth; nothing you could wish for holds a candle to her. "God sovereignly made me—the first, the basic— before he did anything else. I was brought into being a long time ago, well before Earth got its start. I arrived on the scene before Ocean, yes, even before Springs and Rivers and Lakes. Before Mountains were sculpted and Hills took shape, I was already there, newborn; Long before God stretched out Earth's Horizons, and tended to the minute details of Soil and Weather, And set Sky firmly in place, I was there. When he mapped and gave borders to wild Ocean, built the vast vault of Heaven, and installed the fountains that fed Ocean, When he drew a boundary for Sea, posted a sign that said no trespassing, And then staked out Earth's Foundations, I was right there with him, making sure everything fit. Day after day I was there, with my joyful applause, always enjoying his company, Delighted with the world of things and creatures, happily celebrating the human family.

Madeleine: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Psalm:
Psalm 8: The Message

Arlene Astudillo, Brennan Clissold, Ryan Spero

Brennan Clissold: Psalm 8 will be read responsively by half verse.

God, brilliant Lord,
yours is a household name.

Nursing infants gurgle choruses about you;
toddlers shout the songs

That drown out enemy talk,
and silence atheist babble.

I look up at your macro-skies, dark and enormous, your handmade sky-jewelry,
Moon and stars mounted in their settings.

Then I look at my micro-self and wonder,
Why do you bother with us?

Why take a second look our way?
Yet we've so narrowly missed being gods,
bright with Eden's dawn light.

You put us in charge of your handcrafted world,
repeated to us your Genesis-charge,

Made us stewards of sheep and cattle,
even animals out in the wild,

Birds flying and fish swimming,
whales singing in the ocean deeps.

God, brilliant Lord,
your name echoes around the world.

The Lesson

Romans 5: 1-5

The Message

Erica Spero: A reading from the book of Romans

By entering through faith into what God has always wanted to do for us—set us right with him, make us fit for him—we have it all together with God because of our Master Jesus. And that's not all: We throw open our doors to God and discover at the same moment that he has already thrown open his door to us. We find ourselves standing where we always hoped we might stand—out in the wide open spaces of God's grace and glory, standing tall and shouting our praise. There's more to come: We continue to shout our praise even when we're hemmed in with troubles, because we know how troubles can develop passionate patience in us, and how that patience in turn forges the tempered steel of virtue, keeping us alert for whatever God will do next. In alert expectancy such as this, we're never left feeling shortchanged. Quite the contrary—we can't round up enough containers to hold everything God generously pours into our lives through the Holy Spirit!

Erica: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

“Shout to the Lord”

My Jesus, my savior
Lord, there is none like you.
All of my days
I want to praise
The wonders of your mighty love.
My comfort, my shelter,
Tower of refuge and strength,
Let every breath
All that I am
Never cease to worship you.

Shout to the lord all the earth
Let us sing
Power and majesty, praise to the king!
Mountains bow down and the seas will roar
At the sound of your name.

Jordan Bailey: A reading from the Gospel according to John.

“I still have many things to tell you, but you can’t handle them now. But when the Friend comes, the Spirit of the Truth, he will take you by the hand and guide you into all the truth there is. He won’t draw attention to himself, but will make sense out of what is about to happen and, indeed, out of all that I have done and said. He will honor me; he will take from me and deliver it to you. Everything the Father has is also mine. That is why I’ve said, ‘He takes from me and delivers to you.

The Sermon

Maddie Katona, Madeleine Peeters,
Charlotte Clissold, Jason Whitlock, Joseph Allen Eswine

The Renewal of Baptismal Vows

Maddie Katona: Do you reaffirm your renunciation of evil and renew your commitment to Jesus Christ?

People: I do.

Charlotte Clissold: Do you believe in God the Father?

People: I believe in God, the Father Almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Maddie: Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

People: I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Charlotte: Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?

People: I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting.

Maddie: Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?

People: I will, with God's help.

Charlotte: Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?

People: I will, with God's help.

Maddie: Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?

People: I will, with God's help.

Charlotte: Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?

People: I will, with God's help.

Maddie: Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being?

People: I will, with God's help.

Officiant: May Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given us a new birth by water and the Holy Spirit, and bestowed upon us the forgiveness of sins, keep us in eternal life by his grace, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

People: Amen.

Please be seated

Celebration of Adulthood

The Celebrities together with their parents, sponsors, the other participants in the Rite 13 Class, and the Officiant move in front of the altar.

Abbi Clissold, Jen Elizondo, AJ Polanco:

We present Maddie Katona, Madeleine Peeters, Charlotte Clissold, Jason Whitlock, Colin Duck, Joseph Eswine, and Erica Spero who this day move from childhood to adulthood.

Officiant:

Dear People of God: The transformation from childhood to adulthood marks one of God's great gifts. Today we celebrate the gift of adulthood with Maddie, Madeleine, Charlotte, Jason, Colin, Joseph, and Erica. By the grace of God you have all lived through the pains and joys of childhood, and have grown strong. Now, as adults, it is given to you to share God's power of creation. Human beings, because they are made in God's image, are the only creatures on earth who can choose how to use their creative power—not only to create new life, but also to shape the world according to God's purpose. God calls us to use this gift to build and not to destroy.

Maddi, Madeleine, Charlotte, Jason, Colin, Joseph, and Erica are you aware of God's gift to you and the responsibility to use it wisely?

Celebrity: I am.

Officiant: Let us join with these young persons in reciting Psalm 139. The congregation is asked to repeat the antiphon.

Celebrities: Lord, you have searched me out and known me;
you know my sitting down and my rising up;
you discern my thoughts from afar.
If I take the wings of the morning and dwell in the uttermost part of the sea,
Even there your hand will lead me and your right hand hold me fast.

People: Your works are wonderful, and I know it well.

Celebrities: For you yourself created my inmost parts;
you knit me together in my mother's womb.
I will thank you because I am marvelously made;

People: Your works are wonderful, and I know it well.

Celebrities: My body was not hidden from you,
while I was being made in secret and woven in the depths of the earth.
Your eyes beheld my limbs, yet unfinished in the womb; all of them were written in your book;
they were fashioned day by day,
when as yet there were none of them.

People: Your works are wonderful, and I know it well.

Celebrities: Search me out, O God, and know my heart;
try me and know my restless thoughts.
Look well whether there be any wickedness in me and lead me in the way that is everlasting.

People: Your works are wonderful, and I know it well.

Officiant: When Mary and Joseph searched for Jesus and found him in the temple, talking with the elders, they realized that he was a child no longer. So these parents stand watching their daughters and sons grow beyond childhood. Let us pray for them.

O God, bless Brian, Catherine, Stephanie, Bill, Abbi, Brian, Alison, Kim, Mike, Maria, Rick, Renee, and Keith the parents of these young people. Rejoice with them as their children become adults. Strengthen them that they may support their children as they begin the journey toward adulthood. Uphold these parents by your Spirit, that they may comfort their children although they can neither walk the road for them nor shield them from pain. Carry them both safely through this journey, so that one day they may stand together as adults and friends, a joy and a comfort to each other all the days of their lives.

People: Amen.

The Charge to J2A Members and Congregation

Officiant: Dear friends of Maddie, Madeleine, Charlotte, Jason, Colin, Joseph, and Erica: as they move beyond the circle of family, they will need loyal friends. Will you stand by them, knowing that there may be times when your support means more than any other?

J2A: We will, with God's help.

Officiant: As the living Body of Christ, we have been empowered by the Holy Spirit to do God's work in the world. Will you, as a community of God which spans the generations, share your knowledge and experience with these young persons as they become young women and men?

People: We will, with God's help.

Officiant: Will you guide, guard and sustain them as they grow into the full stature of Christ?

People: We will, with God's help.

The Blessing

Officiant: Dear friends, you have been armed by Almighty God with both the imagination of childhood and the strength and creative power of adulthood; now you must journey forth to gain the skills you will need to assume full responsibility as an adult.

The Celebrity kneels. The parents and teachers come forward and lay their hands on the Celebrity's shoulders. The Officiant lays hands on each. The congregation sits.

Officiant:

(Maddie, Madeleine, Charlotte, Jason, Colin, Joseph, Erica); who on this day moves from childhood to adulthood, may Almighty God fill you with courage, wisdom and joy. May Jesus Christ, your strong companion and never failing friend, make you strong in faith and defend you on every side. May the Holy Spirit guide you in truth and peace. And may the blessing of God Almighty, Creator, Redeemer and Sustainer, rest upon you this day and for evermore.

People: Amen.

After the blessing, parents return to their seats. The Celebrities face the congregation to be recognized. (applause is appropriate)

✠ Prayers of the People

Zach Duck:

Trusting God's promise of new life, we pray for the renewal of the church, the world, and all of creation. A brief silence.

We pray for all of God's children. We pray for you to show us your wisdom and guidance so that throughout the day we may overcome troubled times and grant others peace. We ask that all who have faith and those who are uncertain about their faith are led to you and receive stability and security knowing they are loved. We pray especially the Archbishop of Canterbury Justin, our Presiding Bishop Michael, our Bishop William, our Priest Amy, our Brother John, Deacon Barbara, our Pastoral Associate Kate, and our Candidate Allie.

Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

We pray that everyone has clean water. We hope the clean water nourishes us. We pray that everyone has plentiful foods, clean air, and shelter. We pray that everyone has meaningful education that leads to a purposeful vocation.

Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

We pray for our local mayors and government. We also pray for our school districts and all the teachers helping kids during covid, and all the people who keep us safe during emergencies.

Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

Come to the aid of those who are persecuted, oppressed, or imprisoned by hostile governments. Walk with refugees and immigrants as they seek safe homes. Raise up leaders who are generous and hospitable to migrant families. Teach us to honor one another regardless of race, gender or religious affiliation. Provide for all those suffering from the aftermath of natural disasters, gun violence and terrorist attacks.

Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

For the President and Vice president, for those in authority, the leaders of our Nation. We pray for peace among all nations and in our world.

Hear us, O God.
Your mercy is great.

Heavenly Father please hear this prayer for the departed and provide these souls with your love as they enter your heavenly kingdom. Please help the loved ones left behind to find peace in their time of mourning.

Hear us, O God.
Your mercy is great.

Bring relief to bodies weary with pain or sickness. Bless doctors, nurses, hospice workers, home health care providers, therapists, social workers, and all caregivers who demonstrate your love in acts of healing and tenderness toward those in need especially all those on our parish prayer list, and all those we remember at this time .. Pause..... Restore their trust in you, even as you meet their every need. We pray also for those in the Armed Forces, all first responders and all who work for peace, especially Donald, James, Joseph, Gregory, James, Sam, Ken, Trevor, Grace, Drew, Shawn, Nathan, and John Michael, Brittany, and David.

Hear us, O God.
Your mercy is great.

We pray today for Deacon Barbara and Bob Jensen in honor of whose 50th wedding anniversary the Sanctuary Flowers have been given and we also pray for Sherman Hirschfeld in whose memory the Sanctuary Candle burns.

Hear us, O God.
Your mercy is great.

We remember with thanksgiving the birthdays of Robert Hegedus and Gwen Rebbeck.

Hear us, O God.
Your mercy is great.

All honor and glory and blessing belong to you. We praise you for the faith of the saints especially those we remember at this time...(pause)..... Be near us as we await the day when we will feast with the risen Christ forever.

Hear us, O God.
Your mercy is great.

We commend these and all our prayers to you, O God. Come near to us with your saving help, for the sake of Jesus Christ, our risen Lord. Amen.

It is truly right to glorify you, Father, and to give you thanks; for you alone are God, living and true, dwelling in light inaccessible from before time and forever.

Fountain of life and source of all goodness, you made all things and fill them with your blessing; you created them to rejoice in the splendor of your radiance.

Countless throngs of angels stand before you to serve you night and day; and, beholding the glory of your presence, they offer you unceasing praise. Joining with them, and giving voice to every creature under heaven, we acclaim you, and glorify your Name, as we sing, comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high-est.

Sanctus

We acclaim you, holy Lord, glorious in power. Your mighty works reveal your wisdom and love. You formed us in your own image, giving the whole world into our care, so that, in obedience to you, our Creator, we might rule and serve all your creatures. When our disobedience took us far from you, you did not abandon us to the power of death. In your mercy you came to our help, so that in seeking you we might find you. Again, and again you called us into covenant with you, and through the prophets you taught us to hope for salvation.

Father, you loved the world so much that in the fullness of time you sent your only Son to be our Savior. Incarnate by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, he lived as one of us, yet without sin. To the poor he proclaimed the good news of salvation; to prisoners, freedom; to the sorrowful, joy. To fulfill your purpose he gave himself up to death; and, rising from the grave, destroyed death, and made the whole creation new.

And, that we might live no longer for ourselves, but for him who died and rose for us, he sent the Holy Spirit, his own first gift for those who believe, to complete his work in the world, and to bring to fulfillment the sanctification of all.

When the hour had come for him to be glorified by you, his heavenly Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end; at supper with them he took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you. This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Father, we now celebrate this memorial of our redemption. Recalling Christ's death and his descent among the dead, proclaiming his resurrection and ascension to your right hand, awaiting his coming in glory; and offering to you, from the gifts you have given us, this bread and this cup, we praise you and we bless you.

Celebrant and People We praise you, we bless you,
we give thanks to you,
and we pray to you, Lord our God.

Lord, we pray that in your goodness and mercy your Holy Spirit may descend upon us, and upon these gifts, sanctifying them and showing them to be holy gifts for your holy people, the bread of life and the cup of salvation, the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ.

Grant that all who share this bread and cup may become one body and one spirit, a living sacrifice in Christ, to the praise of your Name.

Remember, Lord, your one holy catholic and apostolic Church, redeemed by the blood of your Christ. Reveal its unity, guard its faith, and preserve it in peace.

Remember all who minister in your Church.

Remember all your people, and those who seek your truth.

Remember all who have died in the peace of Christ, and those whose faith is known to you alone; bring them into the place of eternal joy and light.

And grant that we may find our inheritance with the Blessed Virgin Mary, with patriarchs, prophets, apostles, and martyrs, with David and all the saints who have found favor with you in ages past. We praise you in union with them and give you glory through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, all honor and glory are yours, Almighty God and Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those
who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory
for ever and ever. Amen.

“Here I am Lord”

Verse one

I, the lord of sea and sky,
I have heard my people cry.
All who dwell in deepest sin
My hand will save.
I who made the stars of night,
I will make their darkness bright.
Who will bear my light to them?
Whom shall I send?

Chorus

Here I am, lord. Is it I, lord?
I have heard you calling in the night.
I will go, lord, if you lead me,
I will hold your people in my heart.

Verse two

I, the lord of snow and rain,
I have borne my people's pain.
I have wept for love of them,
They turn away.
I will break their hearts of stone,
Give them hearts for love alone.
I will speak my word to them.
Whom shall I send?

Chorus (repeat)

Verse three

I, the lord of wind and flame,
I will tend the poor and lame.
I will set a feast for them,
My hand will save.
Finest bread I will provide
Till their hearts be satisfied.
I will give my life to them.
Whom shall I send?

To our Rite 13 Celebrities and the rest of the J2A Youth Group:

It's been wonderful to watch you all grow over the years, especially after we've faced the challenges of a pandemic and not being able to gather like we used to! I'm so happy J2A came together again this year, and you have all gotten to know each other better while creating some fun memories. I look forward to seeing all that you will accomplish within the St. David's community and beyond!

To the celebrities, each of you are special in your own way and it has been such a blessing to know each of you and watch you continue to grow in your faith. May God bless and keep you close on your journey to adulthood. We are so proud of all of you!

Evening Prayer - On Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays, Mother Amy will be offering Evening Prayer at 5:30 pm on Zoom. Please join for this opportunity to pray together from the Book of Common Prayer with daily appointed readings. The Zoom link is on the website events page.

Contemplative Prayer - Prayer at St. David's meets on the 1st and 3rd Monday of each month from 7-8 PM for a 20-minute sit and reflection/conversation. In June the dates are 6/6 and 6/20. <http://www.stdavidscranbury.com/events.html> Prayer at St. Francis meets every Wednesday from 1-2 PM for a 25-minute sit and reflection/conversation. <https://www.stfrancisdunellen.org>

Prayer Station - After each service Deacon Barbara will sit in the back: listen to your concerns, pray with and for you, and make a note to place on the board. I have also placed a post-it there. Hope to have you join me.

Faithfully, Deacon Barbara

SAVE THE DATE (S) !!!!

We are working on a new church directory. Our last photo directory was produced in 2016.

This directory will only be a good one if everyone signs up and comes in to work with the professional photographers—so please mark your calendars.

Thursday, Sept. 22 2-8:30 pm
Friday, 23 2-8:30 pm
Saturday 24 10:30-5 pm

As we get closer, there will be opportunities for you to sign up. Every person or family who is photographed will receive a complimentary 8 x10” color photo and receive a directory.

If you elect to order your photos, they will be here in plenty of time for Christmas.

St David's Rummage Sale is Back!
Saturday, September 10, 2022

We are pleased to announce you may begin to bring in your gently used treasures! Again, this year due to COVID-19 concerns we are asking that all items be thoroughly cleaned before dropping them off. The church will be accepting items after each Sunday Service. Please bring your items to the 4/5 Sunday School classroom. If you are unable to make these times, please feel free to contact, Phyllis Robinson at phyllis.rob48@gmail.com to make other arrangements.

Preferred items include household goods, kitchenware, toys, sporting goods, jewelry, books, CD's & DVD's, power tools, garden tools, video games, purses/handbags, collectables, furniture, games, puzzles, and bicycles/scooters/skateboards. Unfortunately, we are NOT accepting mugs/drinking glasses, clothing or electronics. Experience has taught us that these items do not sell.

Thank you in advance for your generosity!

Please remember in your Prayers this week:

Garrett, Susan, Kate, Tom, Nelson, Jeffrey, Gianni, Kai, Alan, Christopher, Jane, Scott, Steve, Honey, Edmund, Judy, Kadence, Jean, Jon.

Please remember in your prayers those suffering with long-term illness:
